

Mehr Menschlichkeit für Tiere

Puppy Trade in Europe

A lack of traceability, threat to the European Market and One Health

An event organized by VIER PFOTEN International 26 November 2013, 11.30h – 13.00h,
European Parliament, ASP A3F383

- 11.30 Welcome and keynote: The draft regulation of the Animal Health Law – Animal Welfare concerns in general
Marit Paulsen, MEP and Rapporteur of the AHL
- 11.45 EU Legislation on dog trade and enforcement at EU level and Member States' level
Sophie Duthoit, VIER PFOTEN European Policy Office
- 11.55 Concrete market and health effects of illegal breed and trade: The VIER PFOTEN report
Gabriel Paun, VIER PFOTEN International
- 12.10 Solution part I: compulsory Identification – Technical and management conditions for an EU wide I&R system for dogs
Sven Hüther, CEO Planet ID
- 12.20 Solution part II: A European wide system of Identification and Registration - Also for companion animals
Jacques Grimanelli, President, EuroPetNet
- 12.30 Solution part III: public awareness of the consumer
Martina Stephany, VIER PFOTEN Germany
- 12.40 Concluding remarks: A chance for traceability within the draft regulation of the Animal Health Law
Elisabeth Jeggle, MEP and shadow rapporteur of the AHL
- 12.55 Discussion and Lunch

